

Bio

James and Heather have a passion for the presence of God and a deep desire to see that same passion ignited in others. They have been called to use music to reach the lost and the hurting, and, specifically, to cause those who have forgotten to remember who He is! They also have a clear vision for the purpose and role of the modern-day Levite and have a desire to teach and equip others for greater music ministry.

James has been involved in music ministry for the last 16 years. During this time he has ministered with such diverse people as Alvin Slaughter, Kieth Duncan, The Hoppers, and Lee University Campus Choir/Power Unlimited. He has also worked as a studio vocalist where he has had the pleasure of recording with Lari Goss and Karen Wheaton among others. Both James and Heather have earned bachelors degrees in music with honors from Lee University in Cleveland Tennessee. Together, they have served as a music pastors, university vocal instructors, musical evangelists, vocal judges at local, state, and national competitions, guest vocalists, and vocal/choral clinicians at conferences, seminars, and workshops in the US and abroad. They have also minister on TBN, INSP, and various cable programs across the US. In June of 2005, James received a great honor when he was asked to audition with the Gaither Vocal Band for the tenor position. He went through the long audition process to be one of the final two people to be considered for the spot. James, Heather, and their daughter Hannah currently reside in Norfolk, VA.

What We Are – An evangelistically minded music, worship, and training ministry.

1 Chron. 25:1&7 NASB ¹“Moreover, David and the commanders of the army set apart for the service some... who were to prophecy with lyres, harps, and cymbals;... ⁷And their number who were trained in singing to the LORD, with their relatives, all who were skillful, was 288.”

2 Chron. 5:12-14 NASB “... and when they lifted up their voice accompanied by... instruments of music, and when they praised the LORD saying, “He indeed is good for His loving-kindness is everlasting,” then the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud, so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

What We Ask

- Information from the pastor/music minister/venue stating the amount of time we are to cover with ministry and the type of ministry requested.
- A free will offering from the congregation if possible or an honorarium that is appropriate for the ministry requested (if you wish to give an honorarium in place of a free will offering, please let us know).
- Advertising through bulletins and/or newspapers, etc. stating that we will be ministering at your church with the dates and times indicated.
- Opportunity for promotion of our products and ministry.
- Lodging and food (travel expenses to be discussed per event).

1 Timothy 5:17 AB “Let the elders who perform the duties of their office well be considered doubly worthy of honor [and of adequate financial support], especially those who labor faithfully in preaching and teaching.”

We are here for you; to help you achieve your goals at your church or venue! The items listed above are answers to questions that are frequently asked and are included for your information. They are open for further discussion, so please contact us if you have any questions.

What Others Say...

"It is a privilege to recommend the ministry of James and Heather Coulter. First of all they are a beautiful, Christian couple who clearly have a heart for the Lord. They understand the concept of servant leadership and demonstrate that concept with their lives. With all their talents and abilities, they are people of humility."

"James and Heather are excellent singers, and they minister in and through their song. Their music, like their lives, is anointed. Their ministry touches those who hear their song. James is a one-of-a-kind singer who can connect up with any audience. His singing speaks from his spirit right to the spirit of the listener, creating a bond that is powerful. Any church or organization would be blessed to receive their ministry. Their music will be a blessing to anyone that hears them."

David Horton, Ph.D.

Former Professor of Music at Lee University & Director of Campus Choir and Power Unlimited
(Dr. Horton went to worship at the throne of his King on May 8, 2006. His absence will be felt for generations.)

"James & Heather,

I again want to express what a privilege it was to have you here this past weekend... I speak for everyone when I say, we thoroughly enjoyed having you with us."

As I have reflected upon the events of the weekend, and prayerfully pondered what the Lord is doing, I have come to the conclusion that our meeting was a divine appointment. The Lord has left His fingerprints upon the intersection of your ministry and ours. You allowed the Lord to use you to take us to a level of worship that we have never reached! We've all been talking about how powerful it was! Thank you for being sensitive to the move of the Holy Spirit, and not being afraid to follow the flow. That is what we are hungry for!"

Bishop Jeff Wolf,

Pastor of the House of Restoration
(513) 575-2011

"I have had the privilege of knowing and being closely associated with James for the past 13 years, and have watched him grow spiritually into a fine young man who loves the Lord."

"James and Heather are an outstanding couple and are both greatly gifted. We invite them to minister at our church often....They have a powerful anointing, great presentation, and would be a blessing to any church."

"I recommend them without hesitation."

"James, thank you for the beautiful job you did on your solo role for the performance of Saviour. You contributed greatly to a very moving and effective performance.

James, you sang your role with such conviction and communication (that) I heard many people say that you should be the soloist on the recording!"
